

Classic cars, music on show

SIR James Mitchell Park will come alive with the memories of days gone by as part of the inaugural Perth Nostalgia Festival on March 29.

From 2-7pm, locals are invited to re-live the sound of the 1930s through to the 1960s and view classic cars of the same era.

The Royal Australian Navy band and the Zodiacs Rock 'n' Roll band will provide music throughout the day.

Dance demonstrations including rock 'n' roll, swing and rockabilly will be featured throughout the afternoon.

The event will be held in conjunction with the South Perth Fiesta and is tipped to be a fun and memorable social event for all ages to enjoy.

The retro era celebrations will include stalls, vintage gear and the opportunity to win prizes.

For more information about the festival, go to www.perthnostalgiafestival.org.

Classic cars and classic rock 'n' roll will be coming soon to the inaugural Nostalgia Festival.
